Fifty Years of Successful and Helpful Banking
Will Be Celebrated By First National Bank In City Beginning Tuesday; Opened Aug. 22, 1889

When the First National Bank opens for business Tuesday morning August 22, 1939, a record of 50 years of banking service will have been written, a story of progress that spans a romantic and colorful period in the history of Milam county and Texas.

Thus will begin a week of historic significance to Cameron and Milam county.

The bank plans no elaborate celebration but its officers will receive the public along with customers and the routine of business during the week. It was expected that many would take advantage of the occasion to extend congratulations and to tell the officers and employees something of the measure of appreciation placed upon the fine record of service the bank has rendered for fifty years.

On August 22, 1889, the bank opened for business. The late John M. Hefley, a native of Tennessee who came to Texas in 1850, founded the bank and was its first president.

H. M. Hefley, now president of the bank, was elected cashier on Jan. 12, 1904, and much of the modern history and progress of the bank has occurred under his years of service

WHY Humble Oil & Refining Co. Reduced the Price of Crude

This statement is published as a paid advertisement by Humble Oil & Refining Company for the benefit of those who are interested and not acquainted with the facts.

On August 11 the Humble Company posted reductions in the prices at which it purchased crude oil in Texas and New Mexico by amounts ranging from 5c to 32c per barrel, and averaging 13.5c per barrel. In view of the fact that this action on our part has been severely criticized before the public, we outline below the facts and reasons on which it was based:

1. On August 1 the quantities of crude oil listed below, aggregating 218,920 barrels daily in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, were moving to market at prices substantially below the Humble's postings for similar crudes:

AREA	BBLS. DAY
Texas—
West Central .....	37,000
Gulf Coast .....	22,600
Southwest .....	16,900
East Central .....	12,800
East Texas Field .....	6,850
Panhandle .....	1,500
Total Texas .....	97,650
South Louisiana .....	81,920
North Louisiana and Arkansas .....	39,350
Total .....	218,920

2. The amount of crude moving below Humble's postings was greatly increased when on August 10 the Sinclair-Prairie Company posted a reduction of 20c per barrel affecting the oil produced and purchased by it in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas, which action was followed immediately by reductions in the price made by a number of smaller purchasers. These reductions applied to more than 150,000 barrels of oil. This, added to that mentioned in the preceding paragraph, equals 368,000 barrels. In the three States in which Humble operates, Texas, New Mexico, and Louisiana, the aggregate volume of oil moving below Humble's prices approximated 17½% of the total current production in those States.

3. The movement of constantly increasing quantities over the past year or more of crude produced in the new Illinois fields, reaching a total of 300,000 barrels daily on August 1, on a price basis substantially lower than Humble's postings in its territory, exerted a progressively depressing effect on the crude oil market. The effect was felt in Texas; and actually since April 1 Humble has lost 10,000 barrels per day of business absorbed by Illinois crude. This loss of business was in addition to that lost by Humble as a result of the movement of crude at low prices in the territory where we operate.

4. On August 11, therefore, the total volume of oil moving at prices below those of the Humble was approximately 668,000 barrels.

5. The crude oil market has been under pressure for more than a year. The price adjustments made last October did not remove fully the disparity between Humble's prices and those of some oil moving in its markets. Since that time the volumes of crude moving below our prices have increased steadily, with the result that when the reductions of Sinclair-Prairie and others came on August 10, affecting approximately 150,000 barrels of crude per day, conditions were so bad that we were compelled to reduce our prices to meet this competition. In no case are our new postings lower than the Sinclair-Prairie postings for similar crudes.

6. The Humble Company is primarily a producer of oil. Its crude oil properties constitute its principal asset. Its net production averages 133,000 barrels a day. We are also crude oil merchants and purchase, at our posted prices, 251,000 barrels of crude oil daily in Texas and New Mexico. These prices also govern the price at which we sell the oil which we produce. Because of our large production we are vitally interested in the maintenance of fair prices.

Our refineries consume something near the amount of oil which we produce. As a consequence, with respect to our purchases we are in the same position as a merchant dealing in any commodity. To continue in business, we can not over a long period of time pay higher prices than our competitors. We are compelled to meet competition. The price of oil, like that of other commodities, is subject to change with market conditions. These are simple and fundamental business principles. We were reluctant to cut the price of crude, not alone because of its adverse effect on our own earnings, but also because of its effect on our customers and upon the industry and the state at large. Under these circumstances, we could not continue to pay the prices we had been paying.

7. As a matter of policy the Humble Company maintains stocks of crude oil very slightly in excess of the amount required as working stocks to carry on operations. We do not believe in storage of oil above ground but in production of oil currently as required for market. We do not speculate in oil. We have no desire to buy oil at any price to accumulate for storage.

8. We think the price for oil brought about by the competitive conditions above mentioned is lower than should be realized. In our opinion the flood of oil from Illinois and Louisiana, most of which is being produced wastefully, in violation of conservation principles, is primarily responsible for the market conditions which necessitated our price reductions. It is our hope that these conditions will be corrected and that the market will improve.

H. C. WIESS, President
HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.

Law Enforcement Up To Citizens Speakers Tell People At Rally; Officers Pass Buck To John Public Who Is Asked To Point Out Evils

Law enforcement in Milam county against gambling, vice, crime and other abuses can be had only to the extent of an aroused public opinion.

Just what was accomplished in the law enforcement rally held on the lawn of First Baptist Church on Friday night can not yet be determined as responsibility for law enforcement was placed squarely upon the citizen.

Officers all declared they are willing to follow the wishes of the people with respect to enforcing the law but left the impression that initiative might be expected of the citizen. In this case very little may result from the mass meeting because the average citizen will not sign a complaint nor is he paid to become active in the enforcement of law.

Judge Graham Gillis delivered a striking address which made a good impression. He discussed the relation of the citizen to law enforcement and declared that if the citizens of Milam county want law enforcement they can have it to the extent of their participation along with officers and the courts and that ultimately all responsibility for the safety of society lies with the people.

District Attorney Morrison who recently congratulated Governor W. Lee O'Daniel on his stand for law enforcement, said he was "ready, willing and anxious to prosecute." The district attorney said that he had experienced many disappointments in the result of trials when juries did not convict on what he considered sufficient evidence. The burden of law enforcement is upon the citizens according to Mr. Morrison. The belief was held following the rally that county officials, charged primarily with the responsibility of enforcing the law, might in the future rely more securely upon public opinion which was regarded as a healthy sign.

Sheriff Max Kennedy drew a little ripple of laughter from the big audience when he said, "I have no pets and I will put anybody in jail when they give me a warrant." This statement by the sheriff coincides with the general impression that initiative for law enforcement must come from higher up, that he stands ready to do whatever he is told to do with respect to law violations.

Judge J. M. Ralston, dean of the Milam County Bar, introduced the speakers. At the beginning of the rally while the crowd was gathering a selection of phonograph records were played after which a vocal selection "Ready" was given by Hilton Griswold, who later led the audience in singing "America" and "Onward Christian Soldiers." John C. Mayfield, chairman of the program committee, read the program for the evening and introduced Judge Ralston who in turn introduced the speakers of the evening. Rev. O. C. Acery opened the program with a Bible reading and prayer.

COACH WOOD WILL ROLL THE BABIES OUT TO YOEMEN FIELD EARLY IN SEPTEMBER

Coach Carol Wood of the Yoemen will do his annual stuff soon by getting out the rolling stock to carry the babies out to the field to begin the football season.

On Friday night, August 25, in the gymnasium at 8 o'clock, all boys interested in football this year are invited to attend an ice cream supper and chinefest. The coach will have members of the Athletic Council and a few invited guests. This is an annual custom with the coach, who has only four letter men back this year around which he hopes to build a team that may rank as Class C but must face strong Class B teams in the district.

Enough football material has gone to waste in the city of Cameron in the last ten years to put out a winning team each year. As one wag expressed it, the band gets the beef and the football team the adenois. Baby buggies are used each year to roll the little fellows out to the gymnasium and to the field. It is no wonder that Coach Wood is a standout among Texas high school mentors. He takes these weaklings and manages somehow to stay in the league. Cameron has a big gymnasium, a first rate coaching staff, and the best football field in Texas and all it needs is a few football players.

On September 1 Coach Wood will go to Wichita Falls where he has been coaching the east team of Class B high school stars to play a team from the west. From the Yoemen team of 1938 he will take Clifford Guess, right guard and Alex Lazek, a tackle.

CLIFTON JENNESS RETURNS FROM NEW YORK WORLD FAIR

Clifton Jenness of the Ford Motor Company has returned from the New York World's Fair. The trip was given him by Hefley-Stedman Motor Company, winner in Ford sales for the state of Texas in cities of Cameron's population. The next city to Cameron was Alice. The local dealership won this contest and selected Mr. Jenness to represent them at the New York fair where the Ford exhibit, called the "World of Tomorrow," is one of the outstanding show places. Mr. Jenness was away for ten days. On his return he visited in the city of Washington.

"I enjoyed the World's Fair and the Ford exhibit," said Mr. Jenness but I also enjoyed the trips I made around the city of New York. People in the big city like to hear us Texans talk and right now Texas people are getting a big hand in New York City." Mr. Jenness is one of the most valued employees of the local company, and stands out in Texas as a promoter of Ford sales. There were 15 representatives of Ford agencies from Texas, leading all states. The next high state was Michigan with 10 delegates.

NEGRO SCHOOL TEACHER FOUND DEAD TUESDAY

A. M. Curington, 35 year old negro school teacher and preacher, was found dead on the Niley Smith farm at Branchville Tuesday at 1 p. m.

Curington had returned on Sunday from Austin where he was dismissed from a state institution for the mentally ill, and had picked cotton on Monday. Womack Brashear, Justice of the Peace for Precinct 1, who held the inquest said the negro evidently was attacked by violent convulsions. He was found by his brother in law, Mack Erren, who said that Curington had gone to the field in the morning after chopping wood and drawing water at his home.

Curington was well educated and was prominent among the negro citizens of Maysfield. He was sentenced to treatment for unsound mind several months ago.

They Learn from Southern Women

Touring Reporters, now conducting a Query among women of the South and West, report remarkable agreement as to the benefits secured by users of CARDUI.

Of the 1297 users who were asked: "Were you helped by CARDUI?" 1206—or 93 out of every 100—answered "Yes."

The word of users everywhere is given to show how CARDUI helps to improve appetite and digestion, and thus build up physical resistance. In this way it also works to relieve the headaches, nervousness, depression, that attend functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition. Have you tried CARDUI?

DOGIES OF CONFERENCE, YOEMEN TO ASSEMBLE AT GYM FRIDAY NIGHT

The 1939 Yoemen—Dogies of the conference—will assemble at the gymnasium Friday night. It is the annual get together.

The little fellows will eat ice cream cones and disport themselves about the gym while the coach tries to talk a little football. The Safari (Athletic Council) will be on hand also to get their instructions on style of play for the season.

Coach Carrol Wood is anxious for all boys who are interested in football to turn out for the meeting. It looked on the eve of the first meeting like the Coach would have to draft a few members of the Athletic Council for line and backfield service.

Only two lettermen are back for the 1939 opening. Most of the squad are small men, the usual type of Yoemen and the coach may need an extra number of baby buggies to get them out to the field.

On the whole it was the gloomiest outlook since Nig Moody and Unk Young graduated. If the Coach finishes above fifth place with his Dogies of 1939 it will be a miracle. It will take a rabbit's foot in each pocket and a dozen Indian charm stones to make three first downs in ten games unless the abundant, good material report for the season.

The Coach has nothing much to start with, but win or lose, sink or swim the Cavalcade of Hope will be launched one August night soon—the 28th to be exact at 8 o'clock. Come out and get your Ice Cream Cone.

SUSTAINS BRAIN CONCUSSION AFTER BEING HIT BY CAR

W. F. McAfee of Bonham sustained a slight concussion of the brain following injuries received when he was knocked down by an automobile driven by John Howard Pressley on the south side of the court house square Sunday afternoon. McAfee was hit while crossing the street to go to the bus station at the Milam Hotel. He had come to Cameron with Judge John Watson who was returning from a singing convention at Thorndale. McAfee who said his home was at Bonham, was coming toward Cameron when his car stopped and asked the judge to bring him to the bus station. The Pressley car was going east and it was believed McAfee, an elderly man, did not see the approaching car.

He was taken to the Cameron hospital for treatment. It was reported Monday afternoon that he would likely be able to return to his home as his condition was not believed critical.

MAN CUT ON ARM AS HE PUTS DRUNK OUT OF JIM RICHARDS BAR

Joe Zapalak, bartender in the Jim Richards beer saloon located in a building owned by Frank Bartek at the western limits of the City of Cameron, was slightly cut with a knife on the right arm Saturday night by Vince Schiller who was evicted from the building for disorderly conduct.

Zapalak in a statement to officers said he was cut as he sought to re-enter the building after putting Schiller out. The attack occurred near the front door of the bar.

Sheriff Kennedy and Deputy McCall arrested Schiller and placed him in jail for a short time. But later released him. He appeared in court Monday where he faces charges of assault and battery.

Schiller said he did not have money with which to pay his fine and might have to pick cotton. Officers here no doubt can arrange a line credit as leniency on payments is the usual order. The Richards bar was thus in the limelight again as a trouble spot. Mr. Richards says he is trying to run an orderly place but seems to catch more than his share of toughs.

1200 QUARTS OF MILK WANTED FOR DAY NURSERY

When the Chamber of Commerce withdrew its support from the Day Nursery School, the funds so withdrawn would buy 1200 quarts of milk for starving little bodies and Cameron Good Samaritans are urgently requested to come forward at once with pledges to overcome this loss of revenue.

Then Good Samaritans at one dollar per month each would make up this deficit. So far the little Daily has not received a statement of budget details sufficiently intelligent to present to the public and it is not known at this time how far short the budget for the white and negro nursery schools is going to be. The committee, it was understood, plans to make an additional canvass and for the sake of good business methods as well as to assure the contributors already lined up for this friendly organization of rehabilitation for underprivileged children, all business facts will be brought to the attention of Good Samaritans as soon as they are available.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. Julius O. Vaughn and Mrs. Effie Hightower of Walkers Creek greeted friends in the city Saturday afternoon.

B. M. McMillion, commissioner of Precinct No. 1, was a Cameron business visitor Monday.

New Farmall Family Will Soon Be Introduced Here

Raymond Haigh, head of Cameron, Haigh Corporation, recently returned from a group meeting of International Harvester dealers, gathered together to get first-hand information on the new Farmall family. In this community it is scarcely necessary to explain that a Farmall is a popular type of farm tractor, originally introduced more than fifteen years ago. Because it enabled tractor farmers to plant and cultivate row crops—in addition to doing all other kinds of drawbar and belt work—the Farmall revolutionized agricultural methods in a few short years. Altogether, half a million Farmalls have gone onto the farms.

On this foundation of Farmall experience, Harvester engineers have built an entirely new line of Farmalls in three sizes. Farmall-A, first announced a few weeks ago, is a new small size built to do all the work on the small farm and to replace the last team on the large farm. It has a brand-new feature, "Culti-Vision," which permits the operator to see his work without the necessity of craning his neck or twisting his body.

Although the Farmall-A is in the $500 price class, we are told that it is a real rubber-tired Farmall, through and through, embodying in its design many unusual features of interest to farmers. A full line of direct-attachable machines is manufactured for use with this new small tractor.

To round out the new Farmall family, the Harvester factories recently went into production on two large sizes, Farmall-H and Farmall-M. The first is what is commonly classed as a 2-plow tractor, while the second has ample power to pull three plows. Both feature practical modern styling, with emphasis on design that fits in with today's farm power needs. Quick-attachable machines have been developed for the new "H" and "M" to make full use of their power and efficiency in all crop operations.

The two larger Farmalls can be equipped with "Lift-All," an entirely new type of hydraulic power lift. The pump is set into the frame of the tractor, while the actual lifting devices can be attached to the machine to be lifted, in such a way as to assure maximum efficiency. We understand that machines can be lifted in front or at back, or on either side—separately or together—according to the operator's wishes. A light touch on a little lever does the trick. "Lift-All" can also be used to keep certain implements at work at the proper depth.

The new Farmalls are powered by 4-cylinder, overhead-valve engines which operate on gasoline or No. 1 tractor distillate. The Farmall-A has a 4-speed transmission, with three field speeds and a 10-mile road speed. The two larger models have 5-speed transmissions, providing four field speeds and a 16-mile road speed (on rubber.) All models have adjustable treads to meet all row-crop requirements.

Miss Dorothy Powell of Ad Hall is home for a week's vacation after having been away at business school during the summer. While here Miss Powell has been visiting Miss Patsy Reaves and other relatives.
